ARMY BULLETIN NO. 51

15 December 2005

Chief Warrant Officer Five (CW5) - Selection Board for Position Vacancies for Aviation Warrant Officers (G1)

1. Joint Force Headquarters-New Jersey (JFHQ-NJ), Deputy Chief of Staff for Safety and Aviation (DCSSAV) will be conducting a selection board to fill current and projected vacancies requiring the skill and expertise of three CW5s in the areas of Standardization, Safety and Training. No personal appearances will be necessary.

2. Consideration is open to CW4 Aviation Warrant Officers with at least three years time in grade (TIG), who are current "Pilots-In-Command" in their assigned aircraft. Applicants must possess either a 152 or a 153 MOS and be qualified or meet the qualification criteria for training in modernized aircraft. Candidates must become fully MOS qualified in assignment within one year of assignment. If the selected candidate does not meet TIG criteria, he/she will remain a CW4 in good standing until eligible and recommended for promotion.

3. Interested CW4s who wish to be considered for the positions will be required to submit an application package to Colonel Jorge J. Martinez, not later than 28 January 2006. Application packages may be submitted electronically. Application packets must include:

- Recommendation from current Commander
- Resume (IAW NGR 600-101, Figure 2-1)
- Copy of DA Form 705 showing latest (within last twelve months) APFT and height/weight data, with DA Form 5500 if applicable
- Copy of latest DA Form 4186

4. Once the application packages are received, the DCSSAV will coordinate with G1 Army to obtain the following items from the officer's Military Personnel Records Jacket (MPRJ). If applicants do not have current Officer Evaluation Reports (OERs), profiled and registered on iPERMS, they must make arrangements to obtain the missing documents.

- Copy of all CW3 and higher OERs profiled and registered on iPERMS
- Certified true copy of 2-1

5. Selected officers will develop policies, technical concepts and doctrine in their area of responsibility. They will provide leadership, guidance, technical expertise and direction to supported elements, staff agencies and commanders at all levels. Applicants must possess the level of experience commensurate with the grade of CW4 as outlined in DA Pam 611-21. Selected officers might become permanent members of the New Jersey Warrant Officer Advisory Council (WOAC), and might assume additional duties of working with the State Command Chief Warrant Officer on a variety of projects or issues.

6. Points of contact are COL Jorge Martinez at (609) 530-4749, CW2 Kimberly D. Conley at (609) 562-0627 or CW5 Albert Curving at (609) 562-0969.
